ALLEGHENY CITY REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For Mayor—SIMON DRUM.

For Poor Director—WM. MURDOCH.

FROM our full special dispatches from Harrisburgh published in our telegraphic columns, it will be observed that Mr. Davis, of Philadelphia, has developed sufficient strength to make him Speaker of the House. He has declared in favor of a Free Railroad law and has pledged himself, provided he is elected, to constitute the House Railroad Committee in the interests of the Connellsville Railroad. This piece of intelligence cannot fail proving highly pleasing and satisfactory to the people of this end of the State.

Gen. Irwin for State Treasurer, and Gen. A. L. Russell for Clerk of the House, appear to have bright prospects of election. Mr. Graham, of Allegheny, will have no opposition for the Speakership of the Senate.

CASE OF MR. VASHON.

Some months ago Mr. VASHON, a colored man of excellent character and attainments, applied for admission as a legal practitioner in the Court of Common Pleas of this county. He grounded his application upon the fact that he had been admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of New York, and upon the comity existing between the Courts of that State and of Pennsylvania in that regard. After a preliminary hearing, his case was referred to a Committee, consisting of highly respectable members of the bar. This Committee delayed making their report till Saturday last, when they submitted a document which we publish this morning, and which is peculiar, in that it simply recites the facts in connection with the application, without making any recommendation whatever.

Upon receiving the report Judge Sterrett remarked that by a rule of the Supreme Court of New York only lawyers from Pennsylvania were admitted to practice here who had regularly pursued the profession here within a preceding period of three years. While he did not say that he should be governed by the same rule in disposing of this application, there is no doubt he will be. Under this rule Mr. Vashon's application cannot be granted; for a much larger number of years have elapsed since he served as a lawyer in New York or elsewhere.

No doubt can reasonably be entertained as to the propriety of this rule. A man may at a given period possess a knowledge of the law qualifying him to represent competently the interests of clients. But if he goes out of the practice, and remains out for a succession of years, he becomes altogether disqualified for the successful pursuit of the calling.

While the rule is a good one, we think it comes in opportunely to relieve the Court from putting the refusal it was certain to make on other and less satisfactory grounds.

HARRISBURG.

The Legislature—No Contest for Senate Officers—Speakership of the House—The Chances in Favor of Davis—Agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad Appears and Supports Davis—The Connellsville Railroad Influence also in his Favor—Strange Coalition.

[Special Correspondence Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HARRISBURG, Jan. 4, 1868.

The attendance at the opening of this session is not so large as usual—at least not yet. As there is no contest over the offices in the Senate, the outsiders are confined to those interested in the disposition of the spoils in the House; and this has doubtless contributed to lessen the crowd that is usually seen here on such occasions.

The contest in the House for Speaker and Clerk has been very busy and exciting to those engaged in it. Last night it looked as if Davis would be beaten for Speaker; but this morning the agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad is reported to have appeared on the scene, and the prospect at once changed.

It seemed to have been the understanding, all round, that that corporation was not going to meddle either in the organization or in legislation. Upon what that understanding was based I cannot say; but that such was the general understanding is undeniable.

It would be a great blessing to the State if that expectation was likely to be realized; and it is a pity that the feeling of relief it evoked is doomed to such sudden disappointment.

The fact, however, remains as I have stated it. The whole strength of that corporation was rallied this morning to the support of Mr. Davis, and his prospects at once changed. No doubt now lingers in any mind open to conviction, that Mr. Davis is the candidate of the Pennsylvania Railroad influence, and that all its friends will support him.

But a stranger thing than this is to be found in the fact that while Mr. Davis was thus concentrating upon himself this railroad influence, the influence of the Connellsville road was also given to him! Do not ask me to explain this singular coalition. All that I know about it is that it was authoritatively given out that the President of the Connellsville road wished Mr. Davis elected; and that on the strength of this several Connellsville men went into Mr. Davis' private caucus this afternoon.

At that caucus, it was said, there were thirty-four members present; and as only twenty-eight are needed to elect, this would seem to secure Davis' nomination.

One thing is certain: the Pennsylvania Railroad is especially anxious to defeat the bill restoring to the Connellsville road its franchises. It will bend its whole energies to prevent the passage of that bill, and it wants to have the Speaker on its side. Is it mistaken in its man? or is it the Connellsville interest that is mistaken? They cannot both be right in their trust. Mr. Davis cannot serve them both. One of the two is bound to be disappointed. Which will it be? It will not take much time to solve the problem, nor does it need much shrewdness to devine the solution before even that little time has elapsed.

The chief manager of this arrangement has shown some shrewdness in playing off the candidates for Treasurer, one against the other, to bring about this result. The few friends of Mr. Mason, from the North, were lured into the caucus under the assurance that the best way to defeat Connell was to elect Davis; the friends of Irwin were acted upon with the same plea; and thus men, hostile in every bone of their body to the Pennsylvania Road, have been led to play into its hands in the matter the most essential to its schemes—the organization of the House.

I throw out these hints in advance, that your readers may note them, and watch the developments as they arise. If the caucus arrangement of to-day is carried out, and the Committee of the House do not justify what I have written, so much the better for the State, and so much the worse for my sagacity.

The Reconstruction Convention—The Question of Funds to Pay Expenses.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW ORLEANS, January 4.—An ordinance was passed in the Convention to-day fixing a penalty of twenty-five per cent and ten per cent per month, for default of payment as prescribed in article 14th.

Articles 15, 16, 17 and 18 define the qualification of State Legislators, length of their term, place of meeting, &c.

The Finance Committee reported its inability to make a loan, and asked to be discharged. No action was taken.

Mr. Cromwell, colored, offered a resolution to appoint a committee of three to inform Congress that the Convention had been in session thirty-one days without being able to raise means to defray expenses; also, that the Convention adjourn until the views of Congress upon the matter be ascertained. This created considerable confusion, and the Convention finally adjourned till Monday.

The State Auditor and Treasurer have been notified not to pay the public printers or other creditors of the Convention until the officers and members themselves shall be paid.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4, 1868.

NEW BRITISH MINISTER—THE ALABAMA CLAIMS.

It is expected Sir Edward Thornton, the new British Minister, will leave England for the United States to-day or next Saturday. In diplomatic circles here the peculiar circumstances under which this gentleman has been appointed is regarded as an indication that he will be clothed with full powers to propose to this Government a counter proposition in regard to the Alabama claims. It is also believed that upon his arrival a speedy solution of the complicated questions in regard to the rights of American citizens abroad will take place in a manner very satisfactory to this Government.

TREASURY DISBURSEMENTS.

The warrants issued by the Treasury Department during December, to meet the requirements of the Government, amount in round numbers to the following sums:

Civil, miscellaneous and foreign intercourse	$ 4,761,000
Interest on Public Debt	8,300,000
War	12,955,000
Navy	3,620,000
Interior, Pensions and Indians	985,000
Total	$ 30,621,000

This does not include the sums issued in payment of the Public Debt.

A FINANCIAL DIFFICULTY

Has existed for some time past between the Register and Mayor of Washington, with regard to payments for the support of public schools. The Register, a radical Republican, refused to countersign checks for the payment of salaries of teachers in the white schools until checks were drawn by the Mayor, a Conservative, for the payment of the full amount of the requisitions of the trustees of public schools, making a sum of $43,559, all excepting $5,000 being on account of arrearages to colored schools. This afternoon gentlemen, irrespective of party, brought about accommodations. The Register drew three checks, viz.: $6,000 on account of colored schools, the proportion for the present year, $15,000 on account of arrearages for colored schools, and $12,000 for salaries of teachers in white schools. The Mayor signed the last named check first, and the others, on account of colored schools, afterwards. The Mayor, it is said, thus gained his point with the Treasurer.

CONTESTED ELECTIONS.

The Committee on Elections of the House will report against allowing both Young and McKee, of Kentucky, a seat. The latter, however, expects a minority report in his favor.

IRREGULARITY OF MAILS.

There is great complaint here of the extreme irregularity of western mails. The mail which left Cincinnati Saturday last was not received, nothing has been received from St. Louis or Chicago since Tuesday last, and nothing from Pittsburgh since Thursday morning.

GENERAL GRANT.

Gen. Grant did not leave for New York, as he had arranged, last night. He had a long interview to-day with Gen. Sheridan, who is about to leave for his new command in the West.

FINANCIAL MATTERS.

The fractional currency printed during the week amounted to $343,000; shipped, $194,571, including $62,000 to the United States Depository at Chicago. National Bank currency issued, $74,770. Receipts of Internal Revenue, $6,257,172; do for the fiscal year to date, $104,512,512.

CAUSE OF GEN. POPE'S REMOVAL.

Specials state that the immediate cause of Gen. Pope's removal was his allowing negroes to vote for the Convention who would not take the oath that they had registered. Gen. Meade, it is believed, will permit a revision of the registration lists, so as to cancel some twenty-five thousand names of negro minors, registered contrary to law.

INCORRECT STATEMENT.

The statement that Gen. Banks is preparing an elaborate report on the rights of American naturalized citizens abroad is incorrect. The subject has not as yet been before the House Foreign Committee, the present recess of Congress having interfered with its consideration.

DECLINES TO ATTEND.

Ex-Senator Clingman, of North Carolina, has declined to attend the Democratic Banquet at New Orleans on the 8th of January. In his letter he argues against negro suffrage, but says if it is inevitable, it ought to be made with a property or intelligence qualification.

CASE OF SECRETARY STANTON.

It is said, on the authority of a member of Congress, that in the event of the Senate acting in favor of Mr. Stanton's return to the War Department, the President will throw the case into the Supreme Court, with a view of testing the constitutionality of the Tenure of Office act.

PLAN APPROVED.

General Grant has approved the plan of General Howard to supply provisions from the fund of the Freedmen's Bureau to persons actually suffering in the South, on security of lien on the crop, and instructions to carry it into effect are expected to be given to the Assistant Commissioners within a week.

APPOINTMENT.

Geo. S. Parker, of Boston, has been appointed Chief of the Division of Abandoned Property in the office of the Secretary of the Treasury, vice Samuel H. Kauffman, resigned.

MR. COLFAX'S RECEPTIONS.

The receptions of Speaker Colfax will commence Friday evening, January 17th, and continue during the session every Friday evening thereafter.

THE COTTON TAX.

The cotton tax will be the first subject of discussion in the Senate next week.

WASHINGTON, January 5, 1868.

A "CONSERVATIVE" ADDRESS.

The Conservative Army and Navy Union has issued an address to honorably discharged soldiers and sailors of the late war for the Union, warning them against alleged designs of opposite parties, who have issued calls throughout the States and from this city, for a soldiers' and sailors' convention, for the nomination of candidates for President and Vice President of the United States.

WILL WRITE OUT HIS SPEECH.

Senator Morton, of Indiana, has complied with the request of many prominent Republicans, to write for publication as a campaign document his speech, recently delivered before the Soldiers' and Sailors' League.

NO QUORUM IN CONGRESS.

But few of the Congressmen who went home to spend the holidays have as yet returned to Washington. For this reason it is not certain there will be a quorum to-morrow.

Russell, for Clerk—How the Allegheny County Delegation Will Vote—No Money Used—A Fair Stand Up Fight—Mr. Wilson, of Allegheny, Will Probably be Chairman of the House Committee on Railroads.

[Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HARRISBURG, January 5th—11 P. M.

THE HOUSE SPEAKERSHIP.

Considerable excitement exists here regarding the forthcoming organization of the Legislature. It is now conceded that E. W. Davis, of Philadelphia, will be chosen Speaker of the House. Several caucuses have been held by the friends and supporters of the respective candidates. At the last Davis caucus there were thirty-four members present, who agreed to support him, and, inasmuch as it requires but twenty-eight votes to secure his election, that event is highly probable if not absolutely certain. To-night Davis has made a new estimate of his strength and from an addition of six members to his ranks he confidently expects to carry with him into the contest forty solid votes. McCamant's friends generally concede the election of Davis, although they are confidently awaiting something to turn up to change the figures.

GEN. IRWIN'S PROSPECTS.

With Davis, Gen. Irwin has bright hopes. He counts forty-three votes, while only thirty-seven are required to secure his election.

RUSSELL'S CHANCES ROSY.

Gen. A. L. Russell is equally sanguine of success, for Clerk, counting up thirty-three votes as certain, while five less than that number is all that he requires.

A NOTEWORTHY FACT.

It is a fact worthy of note that the old party factions, which have hitherto arranged affairs to suit themselves, and made up the slates, had nothing to do in effecting these results, new rings being formed and old cliques ignored.

OFFICE SEEKERS.

There are a number of Allegheny county men here who are seeking after subordinate positions in the two houses, but as our delegation is divided on leading officers most of these candidates will return home sadly disappointed.

NO MONEY USED.

There has been no money spent in the contest, notwithstanding what may be said to the contrary by those inclined to be captious. It is a fair, stand-up fight, the contestants relying on their respective virtues, claims or merits to get through successfully.

Messrs. Connell and Irwin are stopping at the Lochiel House, both making it headquarters.

THE FREE RAILROAD QUESTION.

Mr. Davis has given assurance that provided he is elected Speaker, Mr. Jenks' Free Railroad bill will pass within fifteen days; and moreover, that he will see to it that every member on the line of the Connellsville Railroad shall be placed on the Railroad Committee. This occasions much joy and satisfaction amongst the friends of the Connellsville Railroad. There is some probability that Mr. George Wilson, of Allegheny county, will be appointed Chairman of the Railroad Committee.

HOW OUR DELEGATION WILL VOTE.

Messrs. Riddle, Smith and Miller are reputed as opposed to Davis. Mr. Beckert is set down as doubtful, while Messrs. Wilson and Ford are for him.

MR. GRAHAM

Will certainly be elected Speaker of the Senate.

FREE RAILROAD A PARTY MEASURE.

From the present shaping of things, it seems highly probable that the Free Railroad Law will be adopted as a party measure.

HOW THE SENATE COMMITTEE STANDS.

On the Senate Railroad Committee there are three in favor of a Free Railroad law, while two are opposed to the measure. Mr. Landon will probably decline serving another term as Chairman of that Committee. If he does not do so, he will be re-appointed.

The Revolution in Yucatan—General Diaz Opposes an Expedition to that State—Rumor of a Revolution against Juarez.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HAVANA, January 5.—By the arrival of the English steamer Danube, from Vera Cruz, later advices from Mexico have been received.

The proposed expedition against Yucatan had been abandoned Gen Parfiero Diaz opposing the measure, warning the Government that former expeditions against Yucatan had always met with defeat, and advising that the people of that State should be left to fight among themselves rather than be given an opportunity to combine against the National Government.

The revolution in Yucatan was increasing, and there had been more mutinies among the military forces of the Republic.

There was a probability of a general outbreak soon against the Government of Juarez, headed by leading military chieftains.

The insecurity of roads in the interior of Mexico was increasing.

The proceedings of Congress had been of an uninteresting character.

Total taxable property in the State, with the exception of two counties not reported, $454,863,895, an increase over 1860 of $158,341,089. The taxes assessed were, for revenue, $1,2[illegible],730; for Interest, $1,810,415; County purposes, $2,100,486; polls, $151,018; total $5,269,649. Value of real estate in St. Louis county, $209,338,760; personal property, $26,877,360; total, $133,216,120, being only a little less than one-third of the valuation of the whole State. The real estate of the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad is set down at $1,204,019; personal property at $1,627,217; total taxable wealth, $2,021,236.

LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

The Purchase of Samana—Arrival of the Dominican Embassador.

[Special Correspondence Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 4, 1868.

Mr. Seward has made several real estate transactions in behalf of the United States, and, it appears, is about to make another one. Senor Pablo Pujol, the former Minister of the Treasury of the Dominican Republic, arrived in New York with the last Havana steamer, and has already left for Washington for the purpose of negotiating with the State Department for the lease, for ninety-nine years, of the Bay of Samana, in consideration of $300,000 a year. Nobody is near sighted enough not to see that a lease of that description is equal to a purchase, and if the negotiations take favorable progress it will not be many years before not only the territory adjacent to the Bay of Samana, but also the whole of the Dominican Republic will be the property of the United States. Whether to rejoice or not at the acquisition, which may thus be effected is, a question hard to decide. Our purchase of Walrussia is not likely, to judge of the accounts received from there, to become a profitable one for some time to come, and has had the tendency of dis-encouraging the American people from further purchases rather than otherwise. Still the possession of a part of the Island of St. Domingo would very likely be more important than St. Thomas, inasmuch as the country on the former Island is said to be very fertile and the climate in many parts of it unexceptionable. The mineral wealth is enormous and the present Republic of St. Domingo is more particularly indebted to an enterprising New York Mining Company for the energy and activity with which they perform the work of developing its resources. American enterprise would soon turn the hidden treasure of the Island in question to good account, and give renewed impetus to commerce and industry in that region. Looking at matters from this point of view, we would have reason to congratulate ourselves on the acquisition of the territory, as well as because the Bay of Samana would form a convenient station for American steamers bound for South America, and for vessels to take fresh supplies of provisions, etc. As for the citizens and present residents of St. Domingo, the opinion appears to be divided. The more enterprising proportion is, if we are well informed, delighted with the prospects of an ulterior annexation, while others, aware of the prejudice against colored people existing in the United States, are afraid that some laws might sooner or later be passed restricting those privileges now enjoyed by the Dominican citizens, a great proportion of whom, it must be remembered, belong to the African race. They affirm that any step taken by their Government toward a complete cession of the territory, or part of it, would immediately be followed by revolution and the ruin of the President and Cabinet. Still we cannot help but remembering the fury of the Spaniards in Havana, when the news first reached them about the rumor of the intended sale of the Island of Cuba to the United States. They were going to set fire to the whole Island rather than allow it to become American; and still it may not be a great many years before we may take possession of Cuba, more or less peacefully, and without a general incendiary. The whole of the West India Islands may eventually be annexed to the United States, but we may, by that time, find it more difficult to remain on terms of peace with the European powers, as we have hitherto, and the increase of our navy and army will probably be the necessary consequence. In the meantime, let us have the Bay of Samana, if the commercial and industrial interest of our country can thereby be promoted and benefitted.

Search for a Strange Vessel—Precaution to Protect Shipping from Torpedoes, &c.—Case of the Secret Society Members.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, January 5.—English mail advices to the 24th of December state that five British ships of war had gone in search of a strange armed vessel without legal papers. Commanders of all ships in commission have been ordered to adopt every necessary precaution, especially at night, to protect ships from insidious attacks. A guard of boats and steam launches is to be kept on duty. The dropping of torpedoes in streams are most feared by the Government.

An attempt to blow up the gas works at Warrington was frustrated. One of the persons arrested is a well known Fenian.

Two meetings on the Clerkenwell Green, in reference to the late explosion, had been prevented by the authorities.

It is stated that a more intimate understanding has been established between Russia and Italy. The Debats Desirs says that Russian troops are being concentrated upon the Gallician frontier.

In the case of Accolas and others, condemned as members of a secret society, three proclamations were produced, found in Accolas' house, in Paris, stigmatizing Napoleon as "usurper," "criminal adventurer," France as going to ruin, her industry affected, misery at her doors, her honor in peril, and the laughing stock of nations, and calling on the people to rise and take their destinies in their own hands.

NEW ORLEANS.

Order from General Hancock.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW ORLEANS, January 5.—The following order has just been promulgated:

Headquarters Fifth Military District; New Orleans, January 1st, 1868:—General Order No. 1. Applications have been made to these headquarters implying the existence of an arbitrary authority in the Commanding General touching purely civil controversies. One petitioner solicits this action, another that, and each refers to some special consideration of grace or favor which he supposes to exist and which should influence this department. The number of such applications, and the waste of time they involve, make it necessary to declare that the administration of civil justice appertains to the regular courts. The rights of litigants do not depend on the views of the General. They are to be adjudged and settled according to the laws. Arbitrary power, such as he has been urged to assume, has no existence here. It is not found in the laws of Louisiana or Texas. It cannot be derived from any act or acts of Congress. He is restrained by a Constitution and prohibited from action in many particulars.

The Major General commanding takes occasion to repeat, that while discharging judicial functions in civil cases he can suffer no forcible resistance to the execution of the process of the courts.

By command of Maj. Gen. Hancock,

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

"COLORED" QUESTION IN COURT.

The Application of George B. Vashon, Colored, for Admission to the Bar—Report of the Examining Board—The Question Undecided.

Our readers will recollect that some months ago, in the Court of Common Pleas of this county, Hon. P. C. Shannon moved for the admission to the Bar of George B. Vashon, a colored citizen, claiming that he was properly qualified, and had been admitted to the Bar in the State of New York. The motion was resisted by J. H. Hopkins, Esq., and others, and the matter was referred to the Bar Committee, who made the following report on Saturday, which was read by Mr. Shannon, in the Common Pleas, before a full bench.

To their Honors the Judges, &c: The Board of Examiners, to whom was referred, "for their consideration," the application on behalf of Mr. George B. Vashon to be admitted as a member of the Bar, respectfully report:

That they have given to the subject the consideration required; which, as they understand the import of the reference, was to ascertain the facts of the case, and to report thereon to the Court for its determination. These they find to be:

That the applicant is what is known as a "colored man"—of mixed African and European blood; that he is a native of the State of Pennsylvania, of the age of about forty-two years, and of good moral character; that he was, in 1844, graduated at Oberlin College, in the State of Ohio: that soon thereafter he was entered as a Student of the Law under the instruction of the late Hon. Walter Forward, of Pittsburgh, and fulfilled the required period of study. Finding obstacles interposed to his examination and admission to the Bar here, he went to the city of New York, where, in January, 1848, "after having been duly examined and found to possess the qualifications required by the Constitution, he was admitted to practice as an Attorney, Solicitor and Counsellor of the several Courts of the State of New York," and was duly enrolled as such upon the Roll Book of Attorneys, &c., of the Supreme Court of that State for the First Judicial District, composed of the city and county of New York. His examination appears to have been made before Justices Strong, McCann and Edwards, of that Court, and was conducted by Messrs. James T. Brady, Bosworth and Warner.

That after his admission to the bar of New York he went to the West Indies, remaining there some two and a half years. In 1851 he settled in Syracuse, New York, opened an office there as Attorney, &c., and pursued his profession as such until the fall of 1854, when he quitted the pursuit of that profession, and engaged in teaching. For about three years he was a Professor in the "New York Central College," at Granville, N. Y. From there he was transferred, in 1857, to the "Colored School" on Wylie street, Pittsburgh, Pa., of which he was the Principal. In 1863 he became the Principal of "Avery College," in the city of Allegheny, Pa., which place he continued to fill until July, 1867.

Mr. Vashon has made affidavit that "when he left off the practice of law [in 1854] he did so with the hope and expectation of resuming said practice at some future time, and that his present application for admission to the Bar was made in good faith, and with the intention of resuming the practice of his profession."

The application for his admission to the Bar of your Court appears to have been made on the 29th of July, 1867.

We have only to add that the Courts of record of the State of New York recognize the comity of admitting to their Bars Attorneys, &c., of good standing in the Courts of Pennsylvania.

N. P. FETTERMAN,
JAMES VEECH,
GEO. SHIRAS, JR.
M. W. ACHESON,
THOS. C. LAZEAR.

January, 4th, 1868.

Judge Sterrett suggested that the facts reported did not bring the case within the rule of comity, which rule was that the State from which the applicant comes would under similar circumstances admit an attorney seeking admission. It was requisite that the applicant should produce a certificate from the presiding Judge of the District from which he came that he had been a practising lawyer in good standing for three years immediately preceding his application.

It was suggested that the matter be placed on the argument list, and be disposed of in regular course. It was so ordered.

NEW WATER WORKS PROJECT.

Application for a Charter for the Crystal Water Co. of Allegheny County Resisted by the City.

In the Common Pleas Court, Saturday, Messrs. Hopkins & Lazear, attorneys for the "Crystal Water Company of Allegheny county," made application for a Charter of Incorporation for said Company. The object of the Association was set forth to be "to build a water works, construct a basin or basins, lay pipes, and supply water to the borough of Lawrenceville and the citizens thereof, and also those of the adjoining country, and to do all things usual or necessary for the success of the water works." The capital stock is fixed at $100,000, with privilege to increase it to $200,000, in shares of $50 each. The Commissioners named in the proposed charter are Dr. J. H. Bailey, John Chislett, jr., Dr. E. S. Hanna, J. J. Shutterly, Leonard S. Johns and Thos. R. Sill.

Jacob F. Slagle, City Attorney, objected to the granting of the charter, taking the ground that under the consolidation act, by which the Borough of Lawrenceville is made part of the city, the municipal authorities have full power to supply the citizens in the district of Lawrenceville, and have also complete control over the streets, lanes and alleys; that the granting of charters to private parties would necessarily lead to conflicts of jurisdiction; and that the wants of citizens in this regard would be better and more economically supplied by the city authorities. Mr. S. further objected to the charter for the reason that there was no limit of the territory over which the Association proposed to extend its operations, as it not only included Lawrenceville, but also "the adjoining country"—neither was there any limit to the charges or rates to be assessed for water, nor to the amount of dividends or profits which the Association should realize. He claimed that the city of Pittsburgh, of which Lawrenceville and its surroundings formed a part, could supply the citizens at a much lower rate than a private corporation, and in case of any excess of revenue over the cost of operating the works the excess would be applied for the benefit of the citizens.

No decision was given, Judge Stowe taking charge of the papers.

The Weddell House, Cleveland.

Among the many hotels of which our country is justly proud, none take higher rank than the popular first-class Weddell House, corner of Bank and Superior streets, Cleveland. The stranger will be attracted by its imposing appearance, being one of the finest white stone edifices in that city, and looming up over and above all its neighbors. But the beauty of the exterior is not to be compared with the elegance and general excellence of the interior. The parlors, drawing, reception and dining rooms and bed chambers are all constructed in the best modern style and are furnished in splendid manner. Broad stairways and halls richly carpeted traverse the house from first floor to the attic, so that there can be no possible danger from fire, a precaution, we regret to say, frequently overlooked by the architects of similar large houses for public accommodation. Then the attention received by guests is all that could be desired. There are none but white waiters employed, and the tolls generally exacted for odd chores by servants is entirely ignored by a strict rule enforced by the proprietors. We marvel not at the great success of the Weddell House, knowing the clever and gentlemanly management of the Messrs. Kirkwood, who are eminently qualified for the responsible task of keeping a hotel, and who are justly popular with the traveling community. Pittsburghers will find in the office our friend Mr. Lewis A. McCreary, formerly of the Monongahela House of this city. He has a warm place in his heart for our people, and those visiting Cleveland should make themselves known and register at no other than the Weddell House. Mr. McCreary is particularly fitted for the office he occupies, and to his generous and thoughtful attention to guests is largely due the very enviable reputation sustained by the Weddell House.

Fenian Ball.—The Pittsburgh Circle, F. B., propose giving a ball, at Lafayette Hall, on Wednesday evening, the 8th inst. The managers are making every arrangement to render the affair a pleasant one to all who may attend, and we have no doubt that a joyous company will be present on the occasion. We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation from the managers.

A Sensation.

There was put in circulation in Birmingham during the latter part of last week a story which created considerable talk, and yet could not be traced to any responsible source by our reporter, who endeavored to look up the matter. We give the story as rumor has it, but preface our remarks by expressing a disbelief in it—at least it is not so bad as reported, or the location of the item would not prove so difficult to trace.

A few weeks ago—as the story runs—the wife of a German living in Birmingham died, leaving a daughter about ten years of age. In less than a month after the death of his wife, the husband married again. He insisted that the child should call his second wife "Mother," but the child steadily refused. A few days since the father, when somewhat under the influence of liquor, undertook to force his child to address his wife by the title of "Mother." The little one declared that she could not and would not. Thereupon the brute struck her, felling her to the floor, and then kicked her repeatedly in the breast and sides. The poor child, when the violence of the unnatural parent had subsided, was unable to move, and was placed in bed, where she remained until she died, on Thursday, her death being the result of the injuries inflicted by her father. A sister of the murderer was, it seems, cognizant of the affair, but said nothing of it until after the burial of the child, when she told it among the neighbors.

Western Penitentiary.

Some months ago Dr. Hugh Campbell, Warden of the Penitentiary, signified to the Board of Inspectors his desire to be relieved in the following January or April. This fact becoming known, the number of aspirants for the Wardenship constantly increased, embracing some of our most respectable and capable citizens. At a meeting of the Inspectors, on Saturday, an election was held, resulting in the unanimous choice of Col. George A. Shallenberger, of Beaver county. In view of the high character of several of his competitors, the preference of Col. Shallenberger over them all is a strong testimonial of his character and qualifications. The Colonel was a most efficient Quartermaster of the 140th Pennsylvania Regiment, and was promoted to the Chief Quartermastership of the Second Corps, under General Hancock and other commanders. We doubt not his administration of the Wardenship of the prison will be marked by energy and ability.

Doctor Campbell, the retiring Warden, we understand, will return to his former residence at Uniontown. He has enjoyed the entire confidence of the Board of Inspectors, and such of our citizens as have made his acquaintance will remember him with admiration for his intelligence and culture and for his high-toned moral principles and purity of life.

A Musical Treat.

Mr. Kennedy, the justly celebrated Scottish vocalist, will entertain our musical friends with three of his unequalled entertainments of song, at Masonic Hall, commencing to-morrow night. It is utterly beyond the power of language to portray the effect upon the audience by the wonderful powers possessed by this gentleman, in portraying the beauties of Scotland's songs. They are full of music, and when sung, as he only can sing them, they increase a thousand fold in beauty and pathos. His voice is full, rich and melodious. He stirs up every passion of the soul—carries his audience with him, and they feel as he feels, the inspiration of the hour. He is undoubtedly one of the greatest, if not the greatest of living ballad singers, and he is equally great as an actor. He feels the sentiment, and the thought is mirrored on his face. At one moment he has his audience convulsed with laughter, the next the room will be hushed and still as a country grave yard. The sale of reserved seats will commence to-day at C. C. Mellor's well known Music store, No. 81 Wood street.

Death of Henry Harbaugh, D. D.

After nearly three months' decline of fever, this noted author and preacher died last week, and was buried on Tuesday, at his home in Mercersburg. Mr. Harbaugh's great grandfather came from Switzerland in 1736. His father was a farmer, and Henry aided him until he was nineteen years of age, when he went West for a time and wrought as a carpenter—taught school—and in 1840 returned to Mercersburg to complete his course of public studies. In 1843 his ministerial career as pastor began with the German Reformed church in Lewisburg, where he was very efficient in organizing the congregation and building a house of worship. He afterwards served at Lancaster and at Lebanon, when he was elected Professor of Theology in the Seminary at Mercersburg. He also edited the Mercersburg Review. At his death, with only fifty years on his head, perhaps no one had a greater personal popularity, or wielded a stronger influence in his church, than Dr. Harbaugh.

Feast of the Epiphany.

To-day is an important holiday in the Episcopal, Catholic and Lutheran churches, being a festival instituted to commemorate the appearance of Jesus Christ to the Magi, or wise men, who from the East came bearing Him presents. It is often called the "manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles," and the Greek church terms it the theophany or appearance of God. The Eastern Christians gave it also the name of "feast of light." In Germany it is known as "the festival of the three Holy Kings." Some of the early fathers took it to be the day of our Saviour's baptism, when a voice from heaven declared: "This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased." In the Catholic church the day is held as a holiday of strict obligation, to hear mass and rest from servile work. It is also rigidly observed in the Episcopal and Lutheran churches. In all the churches of these denominations, we believe, religious services will be held this morning and afternoon.

Accident to a Tug Boat.

The steam tug boat "Eagle," Captain T. O'Rielly, belonging to the Iron City Coal Company, arrived at our port on Saturday from Louisville. The "Eagle" left this city two weeks ago with ten barges, containing one hundred thousand bushels of coal, and on reaching the bend at Siding Hill, Ohio, one of the barges was smashed to pieces by coming in contact with the rocks at that point. The remaining barges were landed safely at Louisville, where the coal no doubt found a ready market. On the up trip the "Eagle" was no less unfortunate. Near the town of Guyandotte, Ohio, one of her engines broke down, which compelled the Captain to land his tow of nine empty barges near that town, and run his boat light to this city on one engine. It will require some time to make the necessary repairs, and the loss of time to the boat is what is most regretted.

The Arson Case—Final Commitment of the Accused.

John Hughes and Michael Scahill, the parties charged with setting fire to the marble works of Mr. W. W. Wallace, a few days since, were taken before Alderman Butler, on Saturday, for a further hearing. After the examination of several witnesses, the accused were committed finally for trial in default of one thousand dollars each as bail. Two other commitments were lodged against them for larceny—one against Scahill for the larceny of a silver watch, the property of John Cayney, and the other against Hughes and Scahill for the larceny of a box of draughtsman's tools, belonging to Mr. Wallace, which, it is alleged, were stolen from the marble works on the night of its destruction by fire.

Infanticide in Birmingham.

On Saturday afternoon Coroner Clawson held an inquest on the body of an infant found buried on a lot of ground fronting on Carson street, Birmingham. From appearances the body had been there several weeks. It was perfectly naked, and the flesh was nearly all eaten off by the rats. Around the neck there was an apron string tied tightly, with which the child had evidently been strangled. The verdict of the jury was that the child had come to its death by strangulation with an apron string by some person or persons unknown. No clue was found to identify its parents.

The Board of Prison Inspectors of Allegheny county held a regular meeting on Saturday morning, for the purpose of electing a Jail Warden and physician. Mr. W. H. Scandrett, a very worthy disabled soldier, was chosen to the former position, and Dr. W. H. McKelvey to the office of Jail Physician. Both will enter at once upon the discharge of their respective duties.

A Good Religious Newspaper.

The United Presbyterian on Saturday commenced its 26th volume. It is one of the very best religious newspapers in this country, and we are glad to learn that the enterprise of its present conductors in making it such has met with corresponding encouragement in the way of new subscribers. The Presbyterian is a large quarto sheet, neatly printed, admirably arranged and edited with care and decided ability. It is mailed to subscribers at the very reasonable price of two dollars per year, which places it within the reach of every family. Any if our readers desiring a first class, reliable and progressive religious newspaper should at once forward their subscriptions to the publishers, No. 74 Third street, in order they may commence with the new volume.

Academy of Music.

To-night our theatre goers will experience a new sensation in the appearance, at the Academy of Music, of the renowned Fanny Janauschek, the great German tragedienne, who, by some of the Eastern critics, is declared to be superior to Ristori. Of this our readers will be able to judge for themselves during the week. This week the celebrity will play "Deborah," with the full strength of her great German troupe. To-morrow evening "Adrienne Lecouveur" will be produced. Seats may be secured at the music store of C. C. Mellor, or that of H. Kleber & Bro., on Wood street.

G. A. R. Election.—Post 88 Grand Army of the Republic (in the Fifth ward, Allegheny,) met last Saturday evening, and the following officers were elected: Post Commandant, Abraham Patterson; Senior Vice Commandant, David H. Speer; Junior Vice Commandant, John C. Cooke; Adjutant, Benjamin Louther; Quartermaster, Reuben Bartley; Surgeon, William S. Harrah; Chaplain, Hugh B. Murphy; Officer of Day, Jas. Baker; Officer of Guard, Jno. H. Cotter; Sergeant Major, W. C. Cooke; Quartermaster Sergeant, Wm. M'Cune. The following delegates were elected to attend the Convention in Philadelphia, January 29th, 1868: Abraham Patterson, Reuben Bartley and Benjamin Louther.

Will Organize.—This afternoon the members elect to the City Councils will meet at the Council Chambers, City Building, for the purpose of organizing and being sworn into office. At the same time and place James Blackmore, Esq., Mayor elect, will also be sworn into office. The first meeting of Councils under the Consolidation act will be held on Tuesday afternoon, the 14th inst., at three o'clock. The Republican caucus will be held the night previous. It is expected that there will be a full attendance at the organization this afternoon, as a desire is manifested to be present at the first assembling of the Council of the recently enlarged city.

The Superintendent of the Allegheny Fire Alarm Telegraph, Mr. McCandless, has put the line in thorough repair, and it is now in good working order, having been carefully tested. The "Repeater," which was in use at the office in the City Hall building, has been removed, the Superintendent deeming it the principal cause of the inefficiency of the lines. The alarms are now given through clear circuits, and reach the firemen without the confusion heretofore experienced.

A Drug Thief.—On Saturday evening, shortly after dark, a man called at a drug store, on Federal street, Allegheny, and called for two ounces of quinine. After the article was wrapped up he inquired the price, and he thought it too high. He finally agreed to the terms, and then asked for several pounds of salts. While the order was being filled by the attendant, he picked up the quinine and suddenly disappeared. The quinine was probably worth about six dollars.

Pickpockets About.—Pickpockets in the city markets are doing a profitable business just now. During the market hours on Saturday several persons were victimized in various sums. A German lady, whose name we failed to learn, had her pocket book, containing forty-nine dollars, abstracted from her pocket while making purchases at one of the stands. These depredations are supposed to be perpetrated by females. Look out for them.

Not Accepted.—The following appeared in the Harrisburg State Guard of Saturday:

The report that a change has taken place in the position of private secretary to the Executive is premature, the resignation of Mr. Dunglison, dated December 28, not yet having been accepted by Governor Geary.

Singular Coincidence.—John Brotherton died, recently, in Springfield, Ill., leaving his brother William, of Lock Haven, Pa., sole executor. When the will was opened and this fact discovered the brother was telegraphed to, but a reply from his friends announced that William had died about half an hour before John.

The Schools.—The Public Schools throughout the city, which have been closed for about two weeks to allow the children to enjoy the holidays, will resume their sessions this morning.

Rev Mr. Noble, late of St. Paul, Minn., occupied the pulpit yesterday in the Third Presbyterian Church, over the congregation of which he has been elected to minister.

New Letter Box.—Postmaster McClelland has caused a drop box to be placed near the German window, on Fifth street, for eastern letters exclusively.

The Criminal Court.—To-day jury trials—suspended during the holidays—will be resumed in the Criminal Court.

As we pretend to be the promulgator of news we fear we may lose all claim to that title when we inform the public that Messrs. O. McClintock & Co., at No. 23 Fifth street, still continue the sale of all goods in the carpet line at prices defying all competition. The fact that they are disposing of their immense and well selected stock of new goods at less prices than ever attained since the war, and below Eastern wholesale rates, is potent to all. And our citizens, ever alive to their own interests, are daily taking advantage of this liberal offer of Messrs. McClintock, as a visit to their extensive establishment fully convinced us. To those who have deferred the refitting and furnishing of their houses until after the first of the year, we would suggest that "delays are dangerous" and would urge them to "stand not upon the order of their going, but go at once" and reap some of the rare bargains to be had at 23 Fifth street.

The Pittsburgh Gazette

MONDAY, JAN. 6, 1868.

CONGRESS will resume business to-day.

MR. J. R. DUNGLISON has been succeeded, as Private Secretary to Governor Geary, by Dr. Gihon, of Philadelphia.

TO-MORROW the Legislature will convene at Harrisburg, and as no delay will be experienced in organizing, we expect to give the Governor's message on Wednesday morning.

THE Chicago Republican intimates that the government of the United States allows its citizens to throw off their allegiance to it at pleasure. This is altogether wide of the fact. Our laws in this regard are nearly identical with the laws prevailing throughout Europe; and there is not the slightest probability they will be materially changed until statesmen and jurists shall be quite superceded by charlatans and demagogues.

IT IS PRETTY CERTAIN that Maine will present, at the Chicago Convention, for nomination to the Vice Presidency, the name of Mr. Hamlin; New York that of Mr. Fenton; Pennsylvania that of Mr. Grow; Ohio that of Mr. Wade; and Indiana that of Mr. Colfax. A most excellent list from which to make a selection. If the last National Convention had taken either of these men, the party would have been spared the humiliation of a great betrayal, and the country saved four years of fruitless agitation.

A CONTEMPORARY states that the GAZETTE has demanded of Mr. Graham the exclusion of Mr. Landon from the Chairmanship of the Senate Committee on Railroads. Not only have we made no such demand, but we have said nothing from which it could be reasonably inferred we so desired. We comprehend how delicate it is for a presiding officer to violate the courtesies of the body in which he holds position; how ruinous it would be to himself personally; and how it would react against the interests it was intended to promote. What we insisted on was that there should be placed on the Railroad Committee a clear majority of members known to be for Freedom in Railroad Building beyond all peradventure. This we did, not because we had the slightest distrust of Mr. Graham's disposition in the premises, but as incidental to the expression of our dissent to a demand made elsewhere that he should sacrifice himself by a breach of decorum without helping the friends of a Free Railroad Law.

That Mr. Graham will do what we suggested—not because we suggested it, but because such a step accords as well with his past course and present convictions as with justice and propriety—we have good reasons for believing. That he will go farther to gratify senseless clamor, we do not think.

One great trouble with Allegheny county politics and politicians, for a series of years past, has consisted in the fact that they have been altogether too provincial. Nothing, either for the promotion of individual or of public interests, has been made from this narrow policy, or ever will be made, except in virtue of some fortunate accident. A broader view, a more liberal course of action, and a generous policy, are needed to restore to this county that consideration to which her rank in business, wealth, population, enterprise and intelligence entitle her. We say this in no censorious spirit; but because it is needful it should be said, and not only be said, but heeded.

MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT.

No fact in political history is plainer than that popular Municipal Government, throughout all the ages, has been the fountain and best defence of Civil Liberty. Before it exists, nothing is possible but unalloyed despotism. Wherever it is established, sooner or later the right of the people to share in the highest departments of government will force its way and compel recognition.

The Emperor of Russia recently ordained that all citizens of the respective Municipalities, including the emancipated serfs, should vote, on equal conditions, for all their local officers. This was a startling innovation upon the usages and traditions of the empire. It contains all the germs of full-blown Freedom, which may be long in putting forth its leaves and distilling its fragrance, but will be sure at last to mature in perfection.

The first step towards Civil Liberty is to teach men to consider, to discuss, to weigh and to decide political questions—not as an abstract mental exercise, but as a practical and important right and duty. It is fitting that this discipline should begin on the class of things which stand in nearest relations to novices—the care of roads, the support of paupers, the maintenance of schools, and the enforcement of local order. But when the habit of debating and determining matters has been formed, it naturally branches out into higher and more consequential affairs. By this process, Parliaments, Constituent Assemblies, Congresses—the great representative bodies of a nation—grow up, enlarge their powers, consolidate their prerogatives, dispute the authority of the Crown, and inaugurate and confirm the existence of Liberty and Equality.

This is not a fanciful speculation upon a possible course of events, but an actual delineation of what has uniformly transpired. If we remount the stream of time until history becomes lost in fable and allegory, this uniform succession is constantly witnessed. Wherever the right of the people to control their own municipal affairs has been conceded and enjoyed, there has been developed first a tendency and then a determination to participate in all the higher functions of government. Of course, there have been fluctuations in this process—sometimes of the most marked descriptions—as in France, where the shadow on the dial of progress has sometimes advanced with surpassing rapidity and then gone backwards with as astonishing celerity. But however inexplicable these oscillating movements may appear to superficial cognition, careful and trained observers have no difficulty in detecting under the surface the real and main current, steadily tending, however slowly, to the grand consummation of complete political enfranchisement.

In the United States we have for so long a period been accustomed to all the larger forms of Freedom that we are prone to disparage the lesser form—often to pour spleen or contempt thereon—to seek to abridge and belittle it, rather than to allow it to grow and expand and gather strength. Not many mistakes in politics are more flagrant than this. Let any one take pains to inform himself accurately of the immunities and powers of certain of the free cities of Europe in past ages—what part they played, not simply in developing commerce, nourishing arts, and ennobling social life, but in furnishing examples of the value of liberty and of courage in the defence thereof, and he will attain to a juster estimate of the true place of Municipal Government in the economy of political concerns. Nor will this estimate be lessened, if he then directs his contemplation to the conduct of cities and boroughs, integral parts of nations, in defending acquired prerogatives from encroachments by monarchs, in stimulating the masses of the population to a just appreciation of political rights, in inspiring them with a disposition to incur the heaviest risks and to make the largest sacrifices in order to maintain them. Much of this was seen throughout the Northern States of this Union during the late rebellion. The Municipalities were everywhere foremost in filling quotas, in supplying regiments on marches, and in all other labors essential to the furtherance of the national cause.

These are among the considerations which lead us to-day to felicitate the city of Pittsburgh on the enlargement of its territory, the increase of its population, and the accession to its wealth and influence consequent upon consolidation. The new Councils have an arduous work before them; but we have full confidence that they combine the intelligence, probity and experience requisite to such a performance of the task as will enable them to reconcile differences, if any exist, to devise all needful measures for the new condition of affairs, and to make such a start as shall demonstrate the advisability of the recent extension of municipal boundaries to all who are included therein.

LETTER OF GEN. PURVIANCE, OF BUTLER, TO HON. SIMON CAMERON.

THE following letter, addressed by Gen. JOHN N. PURVIANCE, of Butler county, to Hon. SIMON CAMERON, is deemed to be of sufficient general interest to call for its publication:

BUTLER, December 26, 1867.

DEAR GENERAL: I have received your letter of the 14th inst., in reply to mine of the 10th. Would have acknowledged its receipt sooner, but for absence from home.

I concur with you in your views as to General Grant for the Presidency. I look upon him as already our candidate, through the universal movement of the people everywhere, our Convention only having the duty to perform of recording the popular will. There is something in the character of General Grant that excites the confidence and admiration of the whole American people; there is a greatness, with a retiring modesty, that excites admiration, and not envy; in short, all have confidence in him. It seems to me, too, that in the Providential order of things he is bound to be President. Every great war has given us a President. The Revolution—Washington. The war of 1812—Jackson. The Mexican war—Taylor, and the war of the rebellion—Grant—to be.

The people, in every instance, wisely discriminated in selecting the chief military leader of each war as the one safe to trust in the highest civil position. Washington, it is universally conceded, was the great General of the Revolution. Jackson, the most distinguished General of the War of 1812, as was Taylor the most conspicuous of the Generals of the Mexican war. Buena Vista broke the heart of the Mexican army—as New Orleans drove the British to their boats, never again to stand in battle line on American soil. Grant, like Taylor, never surrendered, and possessed similar coolness and perseverance. The battle at Petersburg opened the gates of Richmond and crushed rebellion.

Grant's perseverance compelled Pemberton to surrender at Vicksburg, and his sagacity prevented Buckner's escape with his army and munitions of war at Fort Donelson. His coolness and courage saved the army at Pittsburg Landing, and his Summer line policy led from one victory to another to the surrender of Lee's army, and the complete overthrow of the rebellion. The four Generals combine elements of greatness that challenge the world for a parallel in the same number. It was, then, but the natural promptings of a generous gratitude that the people should have designated each for the highest honors in their gift.

Great care should be exercised in the selection of a candidate for the Vice Presidency—antecedents should be well considered, and no one placed on the ticket but one of proved integrity and well attested loyalty.

I have read Senator Sherman's bill, or rather a synopsis of it, as published in the papers, and, as a whole, think well of it. The entire National debt should be funded upon a basis, equal as to time and rate of interest. So many different kinds of National Securities were issued during the war, as well as to time of payment as to kind and rate of interest, that it would be a great relief to the business men of the country to have a uniform system, with an assurance that it would be permanent, and I think John Sherman's plan about as near right as you can well get it. Bonds forty years to run with six per cent. interest in coin, and subject to no abatement whatever for National or State purposes, except one-half per cent. for the Federal Government and one-half per cent. for the benefit of the States, would be generally regarded just and satisfactory, especially, as acceptance, in a great measure, would be optional, and mainly applicable to the debt now redeemable; though, if generally regarded with favor as a good financial system, would fund the whole National debt, even including that portion not due until 1881.

I did not see your Cleveland letter in full, but from the brief of it as published in the Pittsburgh GAZETTE, I could readily understand it. It meets my views, and I should like very much to see it carried out, by reducing, it not wholly repealing, the tax on home manufactured goods, putting the tax on imported goods, luxuries and incomes, economy in expenditures, and a law punishing criminally unfaithful Revenue officers.

It does appear to me that the Revenue system is defective in many respects, and should be revised and changed so as to be cheaper and less complex, and so modified as to be more acceptable to the people generally. The member of Congress that would move in the matter, and labor to effect and perfect a better system, would place himself high in public estimation, and give his name an enduring place in history as a wise statesman and public benefactor. Gen. Hamilton's fame grew out of his relation to circumstances existing in his day somewhat similar to the present state of things. The Revolution closed with a large national debt, and the funding and revenue system was the chief corner stone of his fame.

There is a growing, intelligent public sentiment against the great inequality of taxation, the burden of which presses so heavily upon the industrial interests of the country. Cannot some better system be devised, and a better one for the collection of the Revenue? May not many government officials be dispensed with? It is thought by many that there are more of them than the public good requires.

Suppose the annual interest on our debt to be one hundred and sixty millions, and that the present generation pay it promptly as it falls due: is that not enough? Surely it should not be expected that we should conquer the rebellion and also pay off the national debt, or pay largely of it. Let us leave to the future some of the bitter fruits of the rebellion, as a just inheritance to those who caused it, and a powerful memento of their wickedness in bringing it upon the country. To provide, then, for the payment of the interest, and ordinary expenses of the Government, we should raise annually, from direct taxation, say one hundred and sixty millions, and from all other sources say one hundred millions. This amount could be raised, if the objects of taxation were more judiciously selected, without injuriously affecting trade and manufacturing, now languishing, almost prostrate, under the present system. The country looks to Congress hopefully for salutary reforms, such as may tend, in some measure, at least, to infuse new life and vigor into trade and business in all their branches. Taxation so distributed as to press lightly and evenly upon all, and only up to the necessary wants of the Government; to meet, in good faith, all its engagements, would be willingly acquiesced in without complaint from any quarter. Beyond this it is unnecessary and impolitic to tax the industry or capital of the country for many years to come. And even taxation up to a standard sufficient for these purposes, with revenue derived from other sources, would be enough without a change of rate, before ten years, to pay largely of the debt. The great West, now rapidly opening out by means of our extensive railroads, in a few years will contain millions of inhabitants and billions of treasure, to share their proportions in the payment of the national debt.

With a revision then of the Revenue laws, proper economy, a reduction or better adjustment of taxation, and a better tariff on importations—one not so much for revenue as to foster and protect home industry. With such invigorating helps from the Government the whole nation would rapidly increase in growth and general prosperity.

I have written more than I had intended. I beg you, however, to accept the suggestions as prompted by a sincere desire to see something more done by Congress on the subject matters referred to, that may have a tendency to promote the general welfare and prosperity of the country.

I am, very truly, yours,
JOHN N. PURVIANCE.

HON. SIMON CAMERON.

—A strange story is in circulation to the effect that the remains which will be honored by Austria are not those of the ill-fated scion of the House of Hapsburg, but of Hamero, a noted guerilla, who in life was not unlike poor Maximilian. The latter is said to be pining away in an obscure dungeon in Queretaro, awaiting the arrival of welcome death.

Horses' Teeth—Their Number and Appearance at Certain Ages—Tricks of Dealers.

At five years of age a horse has forty teeth. These are twenty-four molar or jaw teeth, twelve incisor or front teeth, between the molars and incisors but usually wanting in the mare. At birth, only the two nippers or middle incisors appear. At a year old, the incisors are all visible on the first or milk set. Before three years the permanent nippers have come through. At four years old, the permanent dividers next to the nippers are out. At five, the mouth is perfect, the second set of teeth having been completed. At six, the hollow under the nippers, called the mark, has disappeared from the nippers, and diminished in the dividers. At seven, the mark has disappeared from dividers, and the next teeth, or corners, are level, though showing no mark. At eight, the mark has gone from the corners, and the horse is said to be aged. After this time—indeed, good authorities say after five years—the age of a horse can only be conjectured. But the teeth gradually change their form, the incisors becoming round, oval, and then irregular. Dealers sometimes bishop the teeth of old horses—that is, scoop them out to imitate the mark; but this can be known by the absence of the white edge of enamel which always surrounds the real mark, by the shape of the teeth, and other marks of age about the animal.

Luxuries of the Monastery.

For a quiet man, a monastery must be a sort of paradise—besides there being a large quantity of it. Bayard Taylor, describing the monastery called the "Grand Chartreuse," in the South of France, speaks of a single corridor six hundred and sixty feet long. Looking down it the perspective dwindles almost to a point. Opening from it, and from the other intersecting corridors, are the cells of the monks, each with a biblical sentence in Latin printed on the doors. The furniture of these cells is very simple, but a human skull is always a part of it. The only diversion to break the solemn and silent monotony of life is the cultivation of a few flowers in a garden attached to each cell. Silence is imposed upon all and the priests, guides and visitors can speak only in hushed whispers. The writer says he longed to startle the dead repose of the corridor by a shout of freedom and rejoicing. In this celebrated monastery there are but forty fathers and twenty brothers. This monastery dates from the year 1138.

BUFFALO COMMERCE.—The arrivals and departures of vessels at Buffalo, in 1842, including sail and steam, were but 4,552, and the tonnage of vessels on the lakes was not one quarter what it is now. In 1866 Buffalo reports 13,562 arrivals and departures at that port alone, and each vessel represents four times the capacity of the best at an earlier day. The grain trade of the port was but 5,687,447 bushels in 1842 and was 50,165,074 bushels in 1867, and even then was below the figures of some former years. The total entries for the year were 6,875, with 3,264,024 tons, and 68,675 hands. The clearances were 5,387 in the same time, representing 4,211,061 tons, and 66,945 hands. The foreign entries were 783, with 81,210 tons, and the clearances were 760, with 82,160 tons. There is no particular change to be found in these facts from the immediate preceding years, but there is a satisfaction in finding that the lake commerce and business of Buffalo sustains itself so well through a trying period. It is an indication that rapid growth will be experienced so soon as it is fairly begun.

—A favorite hound, belonging to an old hunter, came to his master one morning when he was engaged in chopping wood in the forest, and by various intelligible signs persuaded his owner to follow him to a thicket some little distance off in the woods. The hunter, on following his dog found there a small and feeble fawn entangled in some vines and brambles so that it was impossible for it to extricate itself. The unfortunate fawn was carried to the house and fed upon milk; but the hound, who was ever ready to hunt and pull down the wild deer in the forest, seemed to understand that he had saved the little animal's life. He made it share his bed at night, and through the day was ever on the look out to defend or aid it, till the rest of the pack of hounds learned to know it, and to understand that they were not to molest their companion's pet.

Fancy the Dismay

Which would prevail in thousands of households if it should be suddenly announced throughout the United States, Canadas, the West Indies and Spanish America that no more HOSTETTER'S BITTERS would be manufactured, and that henceforth the Grand Specific for Dyspepsia, and preventive of all malarious diseases would be lost to the world! The bilious, the feeble, the despondent; the traveler, the voyager, the miner, the sedentary student; the settler on the frontier of civilization; the toiler, cooped up in crowded city tenements; the convalescent, needing an invigorant; the shivering victim of ague, and the nervous of both sexes everywhere, would learn, with grief too deep for words, that the most celebrated corrective, invigorant and alterative of the age, had been blotted out of existence. As a preparatory antidote to epidemic disease, a genial stimulant, a promoter of constitutional vigor, an appetizer, a stomachic, and a remedy for nervous debility, no medicinal preparation has ever attained the reputation of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS. It is the HOUSEHOLD TONIC of the American people, has been so for twenty years, and in all human probability will be so for centuries to come. The magnates of Science recognize its merits; and that it is emphatically the medicine of the masses is proved by its vast and ever increasing sales.

HEALING WITHOUT DRUGS.

The true curative plan or natural healing art is based entirely upon physiological principles—upon the ACTIVITY OF FUNCTIONS in appropriating or using the LIFE SUSTAINERS, and their nutrient value being assimilated in a manner that is potent in the BANISHMENT OF DISEASE from the system. But before we can heal through the inherent vital properties of the tissues, we bring the RATIONAL MATERIA MEDICA to bear, in DRAWING OUT THE DISEASE MEDICINES, and morbid materials through the activity of the depurating channels, sanatory provisions and safety valves, with which the system is bountifully supplied. But when these are either obstructed or not understood, the penalty is the same; therefore instead of quaking lest we die before we have gained more money than we can use, it is our highest policy to learn first the laws of righteousness in the bodily tabernacle, in order that we may live to inherit our natural wealth of happiness. By our normal tonics, alteratives, stimulants, sedatives, &c., we get the FRIENDLY changes of vital action, without the corrosive wounds inflicted by drugs. By a correct dealing with causes in the province of disease, we eradicate the whole catalogue of parasites, among which are tape worm, erratic worm, &c.; also, tumors, cancers, ulcers, abscesses, dropsy, insanity, diseases of the bones or mallities, ossium and fragilitus ossium, deafness, liver complaint, dyspepsia, gout, rheumatism, neuralgia, and in short every disease that flesh is heir to, provided our remedial plan is strictly adhered to. We do not expect to please all. But those who have been the victims of the empyracism and ingenious lingo of similia similibus curantur, and contraria contrariis curantur practice; and now wish PHYSICAL REDEMPTION, in its broadest sense, can try the Vis-Conservatrix Naturae Method, by giving us a call, at No. 50 CENTRE AVENUE, Pittsburgh.

OLIVER McCLINTOCK & COMPANY. de31

525 MILES OF THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD, Running West from Omaha, ACROSS THE CONTINENT, ARE NOW COMPLETED.

This brings the line to the eastern base of the Rocky Mountains, and it is expected that the track will be laid thirty miles farther, to Evans Pass, the highest point on the road, by January. The maximum grade from the foot of the mountains to the summit is but eighty feet to the mile, while that of many eastern roads is over one hundred. Work in the rock-cuttings on the Western slope will continue through the winter, and there is now no reason to doubt that the entire grand line to the Pacific will be open for business in 1870.

The means provided for the construction of this Great National Work are ample. The United States grants its Six Per Cent. Bonds at the rate of $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, for which it takes a SECOND LIEN as security and receives payment to a large if not to the full extent of its claims in services. These Bonds are issued as each twenty mile section is finished, and after it has been examined by United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first class road, thoroughly supplied with depots, repair shops, stations, and all the necessary rolling stock and other equipments.

The United States also makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, which will be a source of large revenue to the company. Much of this land in the Platte Valley is among the most fertile in the world, and other large portions are covered with heavy pine forests and abound in coal of the best quality.

The Company is also authorized to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an amount equal to the issue of the Government, and no more. Hon. E. D. Morgan and Hon. Oakes Ames are Trustees for the Bondholders, and deliver the Bonds to the Company only as the work progresses, so that they always represent an actual and productive value.

The authorized capital of the Company is One Hundred Million Dollars, of which over five millions have been paid in upon the work already done.

Earnings of the Company.

At present the profits of the Company are derived only from its local traffic, but this is already much more than sufficient to pay the interest on all the Bonds the Company can issue, if not another mile were built. It is not doubted that when the road is completed the through traffic of the only line connecting the Atlantic and Pacific States will be large beyond precedent, and, as there will be no competition, it can always be done at profitable rates.

It will be noticed that the Union Pacific Railroad is, in fact, a GOVERNMENT WORK, built under the supervision of Government officers, and to a large extent with Government money, and that its bonds are issued under Government direction. It is believed that no similar security is so carefully guarded, and certainly no other is based upon a larger or more valuable property. As the Company's

First Mortgage Bonds

Are offered for the present at NINETY CENTS ON THE DOLLAR, they are the cheapest security in the market, being more than 15 per cent. lower than United States Stocks. They pay

Six Per Cent in Gold,

Or OVER NINE PER CENT. upon the investment, and have thirty years to run before maturity. Subscriptions will be received in Pittsburgh by

The Pittsburgh Gazette

GIRLS AND WIVES.

Two publications of merit, one a quarterly review, the other a monthly magazine of the elder and graver sort, attempt this week to re-open a discussion which three years ago almost occupied the Recess. In the "North British Review," an eloquent writer, whose identity requires no signature to establish it, points to the disuse of marriage in the upper and middle class as one of the great "sores" in British society. There ought, he says, according to the Census returns, to be only 400,000 women between twenty and forty still unmarried, and there are 1,230,000, the difference representing the number wilfully shut out from their natural and most useful position in society. We may add that this frightful disproportion is mainly within the ranks of the so-called middle class. Peasant women all marry, and the workmen, amidst their thousand complaints, certainly do not complain that their daughters cannot find husbands. He is evidently inclined to attribute the evil mainly to an increase in luxury and vice, observing, with epigramatic justice, that if celibacy included chastity almost all men would marry; but even he is severe on the love of luxury and show for which some women sacrifice so much. The writer in "Fraser's Magazine," on the other hand, who professes to give reasons why he, with £800 a year, is still a bachelor, boldly throws the whole blame on the women, and launches out in a tirade against them, which reads as if it had been taken from an expurgated Juvenal.

Their dress, their cosmetics, their demands for settlements, their extravagance after marriage, all come in for his unqualified censure, and he even lugs in the wedding breakfast as one of the nuisances which disincline men to matrimony. The annual premium on the insurance which fathers usually demand often, he says, cripples a man almost through life, the £100 a year so bestowed making all the difference between plenty and discomfort, a remark which breathes the very essence of the bachelor selfishness, doubtless assumed rather than felt by the writer, but which comes out still more strongly in the following paragraph: "My £800 a year keeps me in luxury as a bachelor,—the club, the rubber, the little dinner at Richmond, the bottle of '34 claret, the opera-stall, the month at Baden Baden, are quite within my modest means; but the moment I marry, I exile myself from this easy paradise." Most people, we fancy, would feel it a luxury to know that the wives and babies were safe from the utter misery which comes on an educated household whose head has left nothing at all; but, however, selfishness is not our topic to-day. Apparently the bachelor would not mind all these annoyances so much, the loss of luxury, of independence, of income, the wedding breakfast, and the payment to the insurance office, the weary ceremonials, and the more weary waste, if only the wife, when won, were worth having.

But he argues she is not: "Simpson, for instance, informed me confidentially, and not without a touch of pathos in his manly voice, that Araminta (who 'adored' smoking in the days of their wooing) requested him to retire to the guard's van when he mildly suggested, a week after they were married, that a cigar would not be an altogether unpleasant companion on the road." . . . "The matron now-a-days quite eclipses the maiden. She flirts more industriously; she waltzes more violently; she dresses more outrageously. 'Hang it!' said D——, the other day, speaking of a well-known beauty, who has not yet ceased to reign, 'she knows as much slang as a cabman, she drinks as much as a fish, only it's curacoa, she gambles like Fox and Sheridan together, she wears a dress which the French police would exclude from the Jardin Mabille; and it's for a jade like this that you ask me to give up my crust of bread and liberty,—my shilling whist and my pipe. Not if I know it.' D—— is a cynical philosopher; but I suspect that in some respects his sketch is not much overdrawn." This violent paragraph is the most important in the article, for it expresses, in a rough way, a feeling which seems to pervade the whole literature of the subject, a sort of disgust and antipathy for the women of the day, which breathes through all satirical literature, which underlies the most serious comments on society, and which we may see cropping out every now and then even in Punch, perhaps the only satirical paper ever established in which women were treated with nearly uniform respect, laughed with, instead of laughed at.

There is, of course, some foundation for a charge so generally brought and so long continued, and it is quite as well that the women to whom such descriptions apply should know what men really think of them, their graces, and their ways; but the general drift of diatribes like these is to prejudice men against marriage, to increase the evil of which the sagacious writer in the North British complains with so much acerbity, and, as we think, so much justice. They increase, immensely, one of our smaller social difficulties to which very little attention has been paid, but which is, we strongly suspect, one of the many causes which keep up that million of unlucky spinsters, the increasing obstacles men find in the way of ascertaining what the girls they might prefer are like. The old ease of intercourse is disappearing, till men, particularly the cultivated men of cities, feel as if marriage were of necessity a lottery, as if they must choose, if they choose at all, on the strength of an acquaintance they admit to be inadequate, a "ball-room knowledge," as people who never attended a ball in their lives are magniloquently content to phrase it. They see women only at assemblies or in public gatherings, till they doubt whether they are precisely like that in private, whether they may not be acting, or at all events concealing their true characters, a doubt which satires like that in Fraser tend strongly to confirm. This difference between the real woman, and the woman of the ball-room, is the point of the Saturday Review's attacks, with their details of false bosoms, bustles, and the rest of it. For ten opportunities of easy intercourse, real conversation, true flirtation in its best sense, which have disappeared within the last twenty years, scarcely one new one has been added, perhaps only one really available opportunity, croquet, the very best amusement ever introduced into a community based on the privilege of choice.

It tries the temper as no other game does, shows figure and face under sunlight instead of false light, prohibits paint, enamel, false hair, and bare shoulders, and allows unlimited opportunity of conversation. But croquet is scarcely played in great cities, where society, in the old sense, is most rapidly dying away, and where men soonest learn to be distrustful. Let the older professionals who live in great cities look round, and count up the families not related to them in which their sons are received as intimate friends, and habitually use their intimacy.

What binds a professional man to look after Frazer's "jade," when the parsonages throughout England are open to him, when county towns and country neighborhoods are swarming with unmarried women as nice, and modest, and moderate as ever they were, with more information, no doubt, and sometimes with more external pretension, but with their real characters as sound as ever? As to extravagance, the charge, even as against the "hard" class is overstretched. They are brought up to know nothing of money; their fathers never give them the slightest hint of their affairs, their husbands never talk business, and of course their demands for money become mere experimental efforts to understand through induction, by the higgling of the market, how much they may spend. Women are not extravagant by instinct, but rather mean, having microscopic eyes. Let a man tell any woman alive, in close relation to him, that he has so much, and wants to save out of that, and then be as just as he can about dress, and it will not be her fault if he does not save, but his. As to the country girls, so far from being liable to the charge of extravagant wants, the very satirists who bring it allege that they run after al curates,—that is, they deliberately try to secure the most moderate establishments kept by gentlemen in England. That is the effect, comments the satirist, of superstition. Is it? Or is it rather the effect of a feeling that the curate is usually the most refined man of his set, the best educated, the one with most intellectual interests. It is not the silly women who marry clergymen mostly, nor are parsons' wives by any means the class least qualified to hold their own in society. Any man of equal culture would have an equal, or, at all events, nearly equal chance, if he tried, instead of fancying that his choice ought to be limited to the girls he meets in London assemblies, and who may be, for aught he can be certain, just those whom Fraser's essayist has sketched. Why should it be so limited? Because, the essayist will contend he must have a wife belonging to his own class, habituated to his own ways, interested in his interests, ready to live his own life. All true and thoroughly sound, descent in marriage being, eight times out of ten, a mistake; but how does all that matter to the question? Class is of no country. The women he scourges so severely have no monopoly of manner, or ease, or knowledge of the world, and are as a rule the most ignorant of created beings.

In every country the "fine ladies" are ignorant, for they study only people, not things, society, not life; but these pseudo-fine ladies never even know truths about people, are not merely unapt in conversation, but incapable of it whenever it strays beyond chit-chat. Their single special faculty is a kind of refined insolence, useful no doubt both as a weapon and a defence; but still not the strongest which can be used, not half so strong, for example, as either beauty or humor. We admit the wretched education even of the mass, an education apparently specially devised as a barrier to knowledge; but still it is improving, and they are infinitely better educated than they were a century ago, when men of good position believed music to be the only proper accomplishment for their daughters, cookery a female science, and reading a taste betraying a slightly depraved mind. Thousands, scores of thousands of Englishwomen are and will remain unmarried, who are as well informed, though in a different way, as men of their own class; who read as much, study as much, and can bear their part in any conversation, on the whole, rather better.

The truth is, we believe, that while marriage is as frequent as ever it was, the growth of a taste for luxury concurring with a sudden development of opportunities for gratifying it without setting up house, have pushed back the usual age, particularly in the upper and middle classes. Census tables do not show this fully, because the habit has not reached the lower classes, who marry as they always have done, before they are twenty-one, and who outnumber the income tax-payers by some twenty to one; but it is a fact, nevertheless. Professional men marry as before, but instead of marrying at twenty-five put it off to thirty-six or forty, and then choose women at least ten years younger than themselves. This is a serious evil, no doubt, though not so serious as a disuse of marriage; but we do not see how it is to be removed by taking a particular and limited class as the pattern of the whole sex, and showing that the women who belong to it will be nuisances as wives. Very likely they will, though something might be said for them, too; but supposing they will, what has that to do with the matter, when they are not one per cent. of the eligible and the ready?

DR. JOHN SARGENT'S

Anti-Dyspeptic and Liver Pills,

A CERTAIN CURE FOR

Liver Complaints, Dyspepsia, Bilious Attacks, Jaundice, Sick Head-Ache, Colds, Costiveness, &c.

THE EXTRAORDINARY AND increasing demand for my ANTI-DYSPEPTIC AND LIVER PILLS, has induced me to make them more public, in order that their usefulness may be more extensive, and would earnestly beg of those who have tried other medicines and not experienced the relief they anticipated, to try, for once, SARGENT'S ANTI-DYSPEPTIC AND LIVER PILLS. There are no other Pills yet compounded which have given such universal satisfaction, nor do any other Pills meet the requirements of the household as do these.

I cannot, of course, enumerate the diseases for which these Pills are beneficial, but whenever a cathartic is necessary, they will effect a speedy and permanent cure. They remove from the blood all corrupt humors, which are always the cause of the disease; they open those excretory vessels which empty into the bowels; they give a healthy action to the liver, enabling it to throw off all corrupt humors; they promote the secretion of bile, aid digestion, purify the blood, and will, in a short time, restore the body to a state of sound health.

DYSPEPSIA.—This distressing malady—so prevalent in our country—is caused by a want of tone in the stomach, the usual symptoms of which are as follows: A pain or uneasiness or pressure below the sternum or breast bone, sometimes attended with a sour eructation (water brash or heart-burn;) a disposition to vomit, flushes of heat preceding from the stomach, incessantly circulating through the whole system; loss of memory; a variable, uncertain appetite; great depression of spirits, inclining to melancholy; weariness and great antipathy to exercise.

It is seldom that all the above symptoms are found in the same patient at one time; any of them, therefore, is a sufficient indication of the presence of the disease and need of this medicine.

DR. SARGENT'S ANTI-DYSPEPTIC AND LIVER PILLS, never fail in curing this disease, when taken according to the directions.

I attach a few of the many certificates I could give in such a form as I hope will be satisfactory; but all the certificates I could publish will not inspire half the confidence that one trial will give.

FROM DR. JOHN BUTLER.

LOWELLVILLE, TRUMBULL CO., O.—DR. J. SARGENT—Dear Sir: I regret your want of attention in keeping me supplied with your Anti-Dyspeptic and Liver Pills; they sell so fast in my drug store. I have been using them in my practice also, with the best consequences. I find them the most efficient of any pills I have ever used. I have been frequently astonished at the large amount of bile removed by so small a quantity of pills given. I request you to send me a fresh supply immediately, as I have been sometime without. JOHN BUTLER, M. D.

STEUBENVILLE, OHIO.—DR. SARGENT—I write to request you to send me a box of your Anti-Dyspeptic Pills by mail. I have not been able to get them since I left Allegheny. I cannot do without them; they have done me so much more good than any other medicine I ever used. I hope you will send some down to our druggist, so that I can get them when I want. I am sure they will sell fast if known. Your compliance with the above will oblige yours, respectfully, JANE WARLOW.

ROCK POINT, BEAVER CO., PA., February 21, 1866.—DR. SARGENT—Dear Sir: After suffering for two years with Liver Complaint, attended with bad cough, and trying several remedies, I was induced to try your pills, which relieved me immediately, and I take pleasure to recommending them to all suffering from these complaints. Very truly, yours, D. D. MORLEY.

ROCHESTER, PA., 1867.—DR. SARGENT—I consider that I owe my life to the use of your pills, before I began to use them I was going down very fast. My physician had done all he could, and I still got worse; but when I began to take your pills I got better, and I have no need of the doctor. I am now seventy-five years of age. ABRAHAM WALKER.

This is to certify that I have used Dr. Sargent's Liver Pills in my family for the last two years, and I consider them the best medicine I have used. J. M. DEVINNY.

New Brighton, Pa., July 1, 1867.

DR. SARGENT'S ANTI-DYSPEPTIC AND LIVER PILLS can be had of all Druggists—both sugar coated and plain. Be sure and call for Dr. Sargent's Anti-Dyspeptic and Liver Pills, and take no other.

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP.

An Old Preparation for the complete cure of COUGHS, COLDS, INFLUENZA, CROUP, DIFFICULTY OF BREATHING, ASTHMA, QUINSY, PHTHISIC, ACUTE AND CHRONIC BRONCHITIS, NIGHT SWEATS, BLEEDING OF THE LUNGS, AND ALL DISEASES OF THE LUNGS, THROAT AND CHEST.

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP contains nothing injurious, but can be taken by the smallest infant with perfect safety. It does not dry up a cough as most of the quack preparations do that are now flooding the country, but loosens the phlegm from the mucous surface of the Bronchial tubes, and assists its expectoration, at the same time allaying the cough and relieving all pain from the chest and lungs.

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP is of incalculable benefit in Whooping Cough, subduing it in a few minutes, and specially effecting its radical cure; and for Croup or Hives it is the most efficient and reliable remedy ever yet discovered—one dose taken according to directions often saving the life of the child.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicine. Buy a bottle and give it a trial.

DR. JOHN SARGENT'S

Diuretic or Back-ache Pills,

FOR ALL DISEASES OF THE

KIDNEYS AND BLADDER

These Pills have now been before the public in this neighborhood for upwards of thirty two years, during which time they have been eminently successful in the removal and cure of these dangerous and troublesome diseases, which often baffle the skill of the best Physicians. This fact is well attested by the many wonderful cures they have effected, some of long standing. A sense of duty and the urgent request of those who have experienced the beneficial effects of the medicine, impels me to make it more generally useful by giving it a much wider circulation. Believing that there is no other medicine published for these complaints that can be carried to every man's door without the aid of a physician; and it is a lamentable fact that there are thousands who are either too far removed from or are unable to procure the aid of one who will be of service to them.

The diseases commonly called Back-ache and to which these Pills are peculiarly applicable, is found to exist in the aged or infirm, the laborious and the sedentary. It is caused by obstructions or chronic inflammation of the kidneys, ureter, bladder, &c., and is known by a deep-seated pain in the small of the back, sometimes extending round the loins to the abdomen; or a dull, heavy, or numbing pain, extending from the back down the inner part of the thigh. In some cases pain is experienced in voiding the urine, and many persons afflicted with this troublesome complaint are unable to endure violent exercise; many, when stooping, having danger in assuming an erect position. Having had numerous opportunities for forty years of testing the virtue and efficacy of this medicine, and with the advice of those who have experienced the good effects of it, I now respectfully submit it to the public, believing that it will be generally beneficial. The few certificates I publish are from this immediate neighborhood, and can be referred to at any time.

CERTIFICATES.

SIR—This is to inform you that I was very much afflicted with violent pain in the back, and great difficulty in voiding urine. I was recommended by Mr. McClintock to take some of your Diuretic Pills, which I did, and was perfectly cured, and have not felt any of the complaint since, being eighteen months.

MERCER COUNTY. JOHN STEWART.

DR. SARGENT—SIR: I have to inform you that I believe I owe my life entirely to taking some of your Pills. I have been taking medicine for several days from my physician without effect, being confined to bed and in great agony, when my husband applied to you and was told by you that I had the gravel. I took the first dose as you directed, and experienced relief, and my disorder left me after taking the remainder.

ALLEGHENY. MARGARET BEAT.

DR. SARGENT—I was for a long time afflicted with what I thought to be rheumatism in my back, so that when I stooped down I could scarcely right myself again. I was advised to try your Pills, which cured me, and I have not felt it since. I have since given a great many away to others, who have found the same benefit.

J. WILLIAMSON.

CROWN'S BOTTOM INN.

SIR—I was for a long time afflicted with a pain in my back. I was advised by Mr. Williamson to try your Pills. He gave me some, which completely cured me. I have since obtained two boxes, and gave them to others in our town with the same effect, and if you had charged ten dollars for them I would have paid it cheerfully.

LEWIS HUMISTON.

AKRON, OHIO.

SIR—I have been afflicted with the complaint described in your papers for the last five years, during which time I have tried everything I could hear of without effect, till I met with your Pills: I have now taken half a box, and want more to continue taking them, as I feel better now than I have felt for four years, and I have no doubt the next box will cure me. J. HILLER.

ALLEGHENY.

SIR—I have been troubled with back ache for four or five years, so that at times I could not rise up or lie down without pain. I took part of a box of your pills, which completely cured me, and I have been at perfect ease ever since. I do, therefore, confidently recommend them to others. PETER CRUMPTION.

ALLEGHENY.

DR. SARGENT—SIR: I take this opportunity to state that your Diuretic Pills are the most effectual medicine for the back ache I ever met with. I can confidently recommend them from experience. ALEX. McCLINTOCK.

Corner Loafers—New Year's Eve Beings.

A New York exchange recently mourned over fine pantomime as among the lost arts. How delighted we should be if we could include corner loafing in the same category. It might go with pantomime, for that is part of the lot. A little broad farce there is, too, and often a dismal tragedy, making altogether a "hodge podge" of dramatic horrors which can be compared to nothing but a horrid nightmare. Recently it came very near being our duty to record a crime committed by a wandering band of this class. A few nights ago a number of men, evidently influenced by Bacchus, took their stand on Union avenue, in Allegheny, about twelve o'clock, and the citizens of the neighborhood awoke with their maudlin howling of disreputable ditties for more than an hour. They then varied the entertainment by shooting and setting off fire crackers and racers; at length one of them fired a pistol at the house of a prominent merchant of this city, the ball passing through a window in the second story, breaking the glass, tearing the curtains and doing some little damage inside. The gentleman and his wife had retired, not to rest, in this room, and fortunately were not hurt, but the consequences might have been very serious. After this exploit the roisterers left gradually, after having been engaged for nearly two hours in disturbing the peace, without interruption. We cannot blame the police, for there are but six for the whole of Allegheny, and judging by the number of loafers to be seen any day, there may have been a dozen more such disturbances in the city, against which the whole police force could do nothing. The evil of corner loafing is on the increase, and nothing is being done to stop it. Citizens are in danger of losing their lives, whether they stay in or go out of an evening. A lady, even when accompanied by a gentleman, cannot walk down Wylie street, in this city, or Federal street, Allegheny, without imminent danger of hearing some coarse or ribald speech, possibly intended for her ears. There is but one self-evident remedy for these evils, and that is a police force. We have understood that Mr. Drum intends to urge the increase of the Allegheny police to forty men, if he is elected Mayor, and we know that Allegheny could keep forty policemen busy, and may be a few more.

A Ghost Story Sensation.

The Leader yesterday delighted its readers with a ghost story, which came all the way from Lawrenceville. After speaking of the mysterious apparition of a woman in black observed by somebody coming out of St. Mary's Cemetery, the nonsensical storyist goes on to state how this somebody was returning to his home after midnight, when "up before his visual organs rose a tall, majestic figure, resembling somewhat the gaunt form of a woman, but horribly spectral in outline and ghostly in detail. She came not down the avenue, nor from any of the cottages that line the road on either side, but seemingly from the invisible body of the atmosphere she grew, and neither walked nor ran, but moved on quietly, noiselessly, the crisp snow making no noise beneath her concealed feet. Not her appearance but the manner of it thrilled the heart of the spectator, whose blood almost congealed with terror, and whose limbs were rendered, through cold tremors, nearly unfit to bear the bulk of his body up. An attempt to run off in an opposite direction resulted in an utter failure, and gasping, panting he stood transfixed until the spectre passed him by, coming so close that he could observe the gleam of a white, beautiful, womanly face among the sable that draped her head and body. Unable to resist the temptation he followed her with his gaze until she approached the graveyard wall. Then a film, or something like a hazy vapor, enshrouded her, in which she disappeared among the tombstones. He who had been thus an unwilling spectator fled at once to a neighboring store-room, where, to an eager, superstitious crowd, he revealed all we have herein faintly described. The news of the ghostly visitant spread from lip to lip, until the entire First ward of Lawrenceville was alive with the intelligence."

To give it, the story, the air of truth, our neighbor goes on to say that other persons have seen that terrible form at mysterious hours. Pretty well told, but the ghost sensation business is at a discount here, where people do not partake very largely in superstitions of any kind.

Universalist Fair at City Hall.—This Fair will be continued a few nights longer. This will be hailed as good news by many persons who have been spending pleasant evenings at City Hall during the past few weeks. The managers are anxious to close the Fair as soon as possible, but as all the chances in the piano, buggy, and some other valuable articles, are not yet disposed of, they are compelled to keep open a few nights longer. This, to them, is a great task, but to many it will be a great joy, and City Hall will be crowded to-night. The grand promenade will commence at ten o'clock. Remember, more than fifty valuable articles have already been carried off by the lucky, and many more, and the most valuable, remain to be carried off very soon.

Assaulted a Boy.—George Hornberger, an ink peddler, appeared before Alderman Strain on Saturday and entered a complaint against George Cooper, a hostler in the employ of General Tom Thumb, charging him with assault and battery. It is alleged that the accused knocked down the prosecutor, who is a small boy, breaking a number of bottles and spilling the ink. Cooper was arrested, but in consideration of the payment of damages the charge was withdrawn.

False Pretenses.—A hack driver of this city, named Samuel Golden, appeared before Alderman McMasters on Saturday and lodged an information against one Phillip Coons, charging him with false pretences. It is alleged that Coons, who is a stranger in the city, wished to "see the sights," and for that purpose hired a carriage from the prosecutor, for which he refused to pay. A warrant for the arrest of the accused was issued.

Mayor McCarthy, who was defeated by the workingmen's party for re-election to the office of Mayor, has accepted a situation as pressman in a neighboring newspaper establishment, and will at once enter on his duties. How independent he must feel out of office and politics, and at the side of a printing press?

Committed for a Hearing.—George Boyer was arrested by the Mayor's police on Saturday and brought before His Honor, charged by John Lafferty with the larceny of seven hundred dollars. In default of bail, Boyer was committed to jail to await a further hearing, which will take place to-morrow.

Contempt of Court.—Officer Larimer on Saturday arrested a man named M. O'Connor on an attachment issued by the Court of Quarter Sessions for contempt, in not appearing to testify in the case of Commonwealth against Wm. O'Neal, after having been subpœnaed. He was lodged in jail.

Disorderly House.—John Graham instituted legal proceedings before Alderman Taylor, of the Fifth ward, on Saturday, against Sarah Riegley, charging her with keeping and maintaining a disorderly house in his neighborhood. A warrant was issued and placed in the hands of an officer.

Larceny of Peach Butter.—Ann McHugh was charged, before Alderman Humbert, on Saturday, with the larceny of a quantity of peach butter, on oath of Mrs. Sullivan, a huckster in the city market. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused, when a hearing will be had.

Larceny.—Justice Barker, of South Pittsburgh, committed Caspar Mengal to jail on Saturday, charged with the larceny of forty-nine dollars, on oath of Martin Ilk. He will have a hearing this morning.

Steamboat Sold.—The tow boat "Allegheny" was sold for cash on Saturday to Messrs. Philip Deihl, John Scheney and George and Robert Moore. We did not learn the amount of the purchase money.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, December 4, 1868.

The return of a large amount of Five Twenty bonds from Europe, the shipment of about three millions of specie and the large short gold interest outstanding, gave rise to an uneasy feeling in Wall street, and parties in need of gold were very eager to cover outstanding contracts and lay in a sufficient supply at what is generally thought present cheap rates. In addition to this, there are idle rumors afloat of an issue of greenbacks equal in amount to that retired from circulation. The very fact that speculators have to resort to such foolish rumors to influence the market in their favor is a reason more to believe that the Government will continue its policy of contraction and steady aim at an early resumption.

The bond market is dull and lower, and the return of bonds from Europe arrested the upward movement of all National issues, except Ten Forties. It was to be presumed that bonds would come back from Europe, since there were nearly two per cent. margin between quotations in Europe and New York, and the large short sales here were the best means to stop further shipments, bringing down prices here to a level with London quotations. The daily increasing war rumors from Europe will have a depressing influence on the price of bonds, and their course is pointing downward.

The stock market is very strong, and stocks of railroads that show increasing nett receipts are eagerly bought up by capitalists of good judgement. Express shares are not much in favor, neither are Mining or Bank shares. The great rivalry between the different transportation companies has brought down those stocks to a par, and a trifle over that Pacific mail cheap at 275 per share is now selling at 113, and the dividends on the ocean steamers will materially decrease; their subsidies having ceased, they are bound to make their dividends by greater exertion and economy.

Money is easier to all houses in good standing, and there is a better disposition to accommodate parties who have a high reputation for probity, even if otherwise with limited means.

Closing New York quotations, received by Ph. R. Mertz, were as follows:

—The December debt statement, it is said, will not be published before the 7th inst., the day after the re-assembling of Congress. Those inquisitive gentlemen, the correspondents, who divine facts in advance, say it will show about $80,000,000 in gold on hand at the beginning of the new year. Out of this are to be paid $30,000,000 to meet the interest on the public debt; the principal of the bonds of 1867, maturing on the 1st; the 24 year bonds of 1847; the semi-annual interest on bonds of 1881, and the semi-annual interest on 5-20s.

—A New York paper states that "the funds deposited by Stout, as the proceeds of the sale of borrowed stock on Saturday, and attached by his brother and sister, have been reprieved by the parties lending the stock. The total amount of losses incurred by the bankers lending the stock is about $80,000, including two amounts of $15,000, one of $10,000, and the remainder in smaller sums."

—The Philadelphia Ledger says: The heavy payments from the United States Treasury and the city yesterday, on account of interest, has made money more plenty than it has been previously reported, though the supply beyond the demand is more than it could be. The demand of the right sort of borrowers is small, than that there is any increase in the volume of money. The general rates are 6@7 per cent. with occasional transactions at below 6 per cent. The street rates for prime paper is 8@10 per cent.

—Many persons will be surprised to see announced the sale by Mr. L. C. Hopkins of his interest in the dry goods business. This measure is forced by heavy losses in the decline in goods under a severe competition on a sluggish, drooping market, and is preliminary to an adjustment of his affairs to meet embarrassment or failure. He has not yet been protested on his Bills Payable either here or elsewhere in the prosecution of an enormous business during the past fifteen years; but in view of his crippled condition, that mortifying event is inevitable, and he will be at the mercy of his creditors when his bills next mature. Mr. H.'s business policy has been subjected to much gossip and criticism, mainly at the hands of his rivals, and the "I told you so" remark will be heard from all sides; but in his misfortune he has the sympathy of the community at large, and earnest hopes for his speedy recovery from his prostration. It is not unreasonable to anticipate that this disaster will produce any excitement in business circles since, during the past few months, Mr. Hopkins' course has been extensively discussed, freely gossiped about by his rivals, and event consequently asserted by many to be more than probable. His indebtedness here is insignificant, all of it, nearly, being concentrated in New York.—Cin. Commercial.

—The Chicago Tribune, of Friday, reports money matter sin that city, as follows: The New Year opens with a money market differing little from that which characterized the demise of the old one. Business at the banks was more active to-day than usual, in consequence of the recurrence of the New Year, and the regular monthly settlements between merchants and manufacturers. The demand for discounts was only fair, and the market is scarcely so stringent as was noticed some three or four days since. Most of the banks report a return flow of currency from the country, and deposits are picking up. Still there is no great disposition to extend discount lines, and we fear that borrowers will not experience any increased ease until after the publication of the quarterly reports.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, January 4, 1868.

CRUDE—The market has been moderately active during the past week, and with liberal arrivals, both by river and rail, and an increased supply, the sales have been somewhat larger than usual, though prices have undergone no quotable change. There was a sale of 2000 bbls at auction to-day, "on account of whom it may concern," at 7c; and we also heard of a sale of 1000 bbls, to arrive on bulk cars, at 6¾. There was also a negotiation pending for all this month, seller's option, at 6⅜c, but at last accounts it had not been consumated. In regard to the future course of the market, there is a good deal of surmising and any number of predictions; one thing is generally conceded, however, that oil is remarkably cheap, and if there is any change at all, it must be upward. At present prices, there is no margin for either dealer or refiner, and it is not likely that there will be any improvement in the general tone of the trade until prices appreciate; indeed, it is asserted, and with good reason, too, that refined oil cannot be made and sold at present figures without the refiner incurring a positive loss.

REFINED—There is no improvement to note in the general tone of the market for bonded oil, either for present or future delivery, and, compared with last week, prices have still further declined. We have reported sales, or adjustments of old contracts, as follows: 500 bbls, on spot, at 22c; 500 for all the month, seller's option, at 22c, and 250 for same month and option, at 22c. There have been but very few bona fide sales during the past week, the great proportion of the transactions reported being the settlement of old contracts, and, so far as we can learn, but very few of our refiners are willing to enter into new contracts at prevailing prices, for the very good reason, that there is no margin for them, as we have already intimated. At no time in the history of the trade has refined oil been below present prices, and we are in hopes now, as money matters are easing up in the east, that a reaction is near at hand.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals of oil by river and rail, since the date of our last report, were as follows:

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, January 4, 1868.

The general markets continue dull and devoid of any new features worthy of special notice. For some few articles, in consequence of scarcity, there is a good local inquiry, and that, too, at stiffening prices, but, as a general thing, the demand for all of the leading commodities is restricted mainly to supplying the immediate wants of consumers, and prices have undergone no material change.

GRAIN—Winter Wheat is in steady demand, and the mills are taking all that offers at $2,55 for Red, and $2,65 for do White. Barley is scarce and in demand, and may be quoted firm at $1,65 for Spring, and $1,70@1,75 for Fall. Oats in rather better demand, there being plenty of buyers at 60c, and no sellers; sale of 400 bush to the trade at 62c; and small sales in store at 67@68c. New Ear Corn may be quoted at 90@95c: sale of 2 cars new Shelled at $1,05. Rye is quiet and unchanged at $1,40@1,45. We are cognizant of a trade of Oats for Rye, the former at 63 cents, and the latter at $1,45.

FLOUR—Is firm, with a fair local demand but unchanged. We now quote at $10,50@11,00 for Spring Wheat; $12@12,50 for Winter Wheat, and $14,50@15,50 for fancy brands. Rye Flour is quoted at $8,50 per bbl, and Buckwheat at $5 25@5,50 per cwt.

BACON—Is quiet but steady at unchanged prices—11@11¼c for Shoulders; 13@13½c for Ribbed Sides, and 16½@17c for Sugar Cured Hams.

LARD—Is dull but unchanged at 13c for prime kettle rendered, in tierces, and 13¼@13½, in kegs.

LARD OIL—Is quoted by manufacturers at 87c for No. 2, and $1,08 for No. 1.

BUTTER—Under the influence of increased arrivals is dull and drooping; we now quote prime to choice Roll Butter at 37@40c.

EGGS—Steady but unchanged; sales at 37a to 38c.

APPLES—Steady with a steady store demand, and we can report regular sales at $3@4¼ per bbl, for fair to choice.

DRIED FRUIT—Continues dull with a supply largely in excess of the demand. We quote at 7@8c for Apples, and 10c to 12½c for Peaches.

HAY—Is coming in pretty freely, and the market is dull and weak with a drooping tendency; sale of 57 bales, on wharf, fair quality at $16 per ton. Loose Hay is selling from wagons at $18 to $22.

CRANBERRIES—Dull at $12@13.

BEANS—Dull at $3@3¼.

HOMINY—Dull at $7@7¼.

POTATOES—Quiet and unchanged; we continue to quote at $1@1,10 per bush, and $3,25@3,50 per bbl, as to quality.

RIVER NEWS.

The river was swelling steadily at this point yesterday afternoon with eight and a half feet in the channel by the Allegheny marks. The weather continues cloudy and soft with indications favorable for more rain.

We noticed several towboats with steam up yesterday, preparatory to leaving for some points below with coal.

The towboat Dexter, sunk by the heavy ice during the recent rise in the Allegheny river, about ten days since, was got afloat yesterday, and safely landed in the dock for repairs. The raising was under the direction of Captain Steve Rogers. The hull is somewhat hogged, but it is thought it will be brought back to its original shape, and made nearly as good as before. Captain Esten is not depressed by misfortune, and the work of repairing is rapidly going forward. He expects to have the Dexter at work in a few days.

The towboats Niagara, Eagle, Mary Ann and Lioness, of the coal fleet, arrived during Friday night and Saturday.

The Leonidas arrived from New Orleans on Saturday, and the Keaton left for Cincinnati and Louisville, with a very good trip.

The Delaware, Capt. Richard Calhoun, is up for Nashville, and the Yorktown, Capt. Geo. W. Ebbert, will be ready to leave for Cincinnati and Louisville to-morrow or next day.

The Kate Putnam, Capt. J. H. Lightner, and the Glasgow, Captain G. W. Johnston, both good boats, are announced for St. Louis forthwith.

The Messenger, Capt. Jesse Dean, and the Leonidas, Capt. Shedden, are both up for New Orleans, and they are both big carriers, and well adapted for the trade.

The towboat Mary Alice arrived safely at Louisville on Thursday en route for New Orleans.

The Armenia and Glendale, the latter en route to Pittsburgh, and the former to St. Louis, were at Cairo on Wednesday. The Glendale has a barge and nearly 600 tons of iron ore.

A Louisville telegram to the Cincinnati Commercial, gives the following additional particulars in regard to the disaster to the T. D. Horner:

A terrible disaster occurred on the falls this morning, caused by the submerged and unfinished stone pier of the bridge in the Middle Chute. The towboat T. D. Horner while descending the falls, in charge of her owner, Capt. Pink Varble, was dashed to pieces on the pier. The boat struck the top of the pier with her broadside with tremendous force, cutting the boat in two amidships, scattering the upper works and toppling the chimneys over, making a wreck of all, and drowning two of the crew, Geo. Halderbaum and John Sinclair, who were knocked overboard by the force of the collision. The boilers were knocked down and the boat set on fire, but was extinguished by the heroic efforts of the survivors, who had a narrow escape with their lives. Captain Varble was seriously injured, and together with the balance of the crew, saved in a yawl. The boat is a total loss. She is insured here for $6,000, and valued at $15,000. A misty haze existed on the river at the time, but the disaster is considered unavoidable, the top of the unfinished bridge pier being under water. If the river should rise two feet more, all the piers in the channel would be covered, and no boat dare to attempt the passage of the falls, and navigation will be effectually cut off beyond this city, as then the canal will be impossible.

The same paper also states: Our miscellaneous dispatches state that the Mary McDonald caught fire in the hold, opposite College Point, in the Lower Mississippi, when steam was turned into the hold, damaging her cargo for New Orleans. Insured principally in St. Louis and Cincinnati offices. She is a fine sidewheel steamer, built at St. Louis less than two years since, by Capts. David Silvers, Thos. Shields, and Capt. Gonsollis, from the Iowa's machinery, for the Missouri river trade.

The Westmoreland and towboat Tigress, en route for New Orleans, were at Cairo on Wednesday, and the Importer, enroute from St. Louis to Pittsburgh, passed there on Thursday.

The Bellevernon, en route from New Orleans to Pittsburgh, passed Louisville on Thursday. The Lorena passed down the same day.

The Kate Robinson left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Thursday, and the Wauanita was announced to follow on Friday.

Chas. Hughes, a well-known pilot, died at Cincinnati on Wednesday last.

The St. Louis Republican gives a list of steamers licensed at the St. Louis Custom House during the past year; it embraces a total of 224 steamers of all classes, which are classified as follows: 99 sidewheel, freight and passenger; 78 sternwheel do do; 35 towboats; 6 wrecking boats, of an aggregate tonnage of 69,460 tons. This list does not include in steamers of 4,615 tons, owned by the Northern Line, which are entered at Galena, nor the fleet of boats owned and entered at the various ports on the Ohio. In addition to the above there is an aggregate barge tonnage of 26,161 tons entered, not including the barges of the Northern Line, which number somewhere near fifty, and are, as the boats, entered at Galena.

The Louisville Courier, of Wednesday, says: The Mary Davage, a diminutive towboat, in charge of Captain Hugh Campbell, with two huge barges, one on either flank or fore quarter, and a nondescript concern just in front of them called a schooner, filled up a wide wharf space, and we suppose Harry Parmelee, the wharfmaster, collected dues and tonnage according to the space occupied. It should be a good round sum.

The Mary Davage and her heavy tow descended the falls in the evening, making the passage in safety. She discharged a lot of plug salt and horse shoes for this port.

The Cincinnati Enquirer, of Saturday, says: There is a movement on foot to form a line of three steamers (sidewheelers) between this city and Pittsburgh, one leaving here every other day. It the project is carried out, the J. N. McCullough will be one of the steamers, and the Major Anderson is talked of as the second, to be commanded by Captain C. A. Dravo. We have not heard the other boat suggested.

We extract the following items from the Commercial of the same date:

Our special New Orleans correspondent, who is reliable, writes us on the 24th inst., that the "Great Republic leaves for Louisville and Cincinnati with over seventeen hundred hhds sugar, together with molasses and other freight. She has truly made a lucky hit this time. Being the only boat in port, she had the advantage of an open field. She is getting 50 a hundred to Cairo." It appears from the above that the dispatches from Louisville announcing that the Great Republic took sugar at $1.25 to $1.50 per hhd, is erroneous. Forty cts. is little enough for freight, to say nothing of the low rate of 100 per hundred. The R. E. Lee left Vicksburg for New Orleans on the 27th, with 2806 bales cotton. The Dexter, on her trial trip, made up stream, three miles in 11 minutes, beating the Quitman one minute over the same ground. The W. H. Brown passed down for Louisville at 4 p. m., with a tow of the Ohio River Salt Company's salt for Louisville. Chas. Hughes, a well known Louisville and Pittsburgh pilot, aged 40 years, died in this city a few days since, of chronic diarrhea. His remains were interred in Spring Grove yesterday, the funeral being attended by the I. O. O. F. and O. and L. Pilots Association. He leaves a disconsolate wife and two children to mourn his loss.

ST. LOUIS, January 3.—River business is a mere shadow; freight is scarce and rates unsettled. Weather mild, and river slowly swelling with 5 feet to Cairo. The Americus, from Pittsburgh, with a heavy load, is momentarily expected. The Virginia is loading again for New Orleans. The Forsyth is returning hither from Cairo, with all the freight left there by the Atlantic boats. Freight teams are crossing the Missouri on a recently finished wooden bridge at Omaha. The Ruth had over 2,000 tons on leaving Cairo last night for New Orleans.

SWORD'S SELF-TEMPERING
STEAM POWER
BRICK MACHINE,
MANUFACTURED BY THE
PITTSBURGH BRICK MACHINE
BRICK MANUFACTURING CO.
This Machine takes the clay direct from the bank, (without the preparation, by soaking, necessary for "soft mud" machines,) and tempers it thoroughly, pressing in steel moulds, brick stiff enough to be packed up eight high in the yard as made. For cutting with the trowel, bearing hard usage, and making a strong, true wall, there are no better brick known. The cost of making them by this machine is from 95 cents to $1.10 per 1,000, according to the rates of wages. This we guarantee. The machine is built entirely of iron and steel, and in the best style for strength and permanent use in working clay. Apply for circulars, giving full information, at the office,

A GREAT FAMILY CONVENIENCE.
A new and novel arrangement for having HOT WATER BOILERS
attached to the back end of common cook stoves, so that the waste heat which goes up the stove-pipe heats all the water needed in an ordinary sized family, by passing the blaze directly through the boiler, which sits over the pipe hole of the stove. This new arrangement can be put on to any No. 7, 8 or 9 common Cooking Stove, of any manufacture. Any person having a TRIUMPH, VICTORY, BLACK OAK, BEAUTY or UNION STOVE, or almost any other Cook Stove made in the Union, can have Boilers attached to their Stoves, including the Attachment, the Boiler and Lids, and Bibb Cock, for the moderate cost of SEVEN DOLLARS, by applying to
